"It ain't pretty, but work. As you can tell perfectly even, so you might to use it as a trace, and cleaner, more even one. I use with a fine tooth blade then."

1911 fan's advice:

I used masking tape to used this as a starting point FWIW. my screen is now a dash. I'm 6'2" with a 3 buffeting is 90% gone.

it's pretty, but she'll you can tell it's not so you might just want trace, and make a new
one. I used a jigsaw
to then sand the edges.

is tape to cover the whole screen, starting point and evened it up.
is now about  $5\frac{1}{2}$ " above the with a 34-36" inseam, and the gone.
